

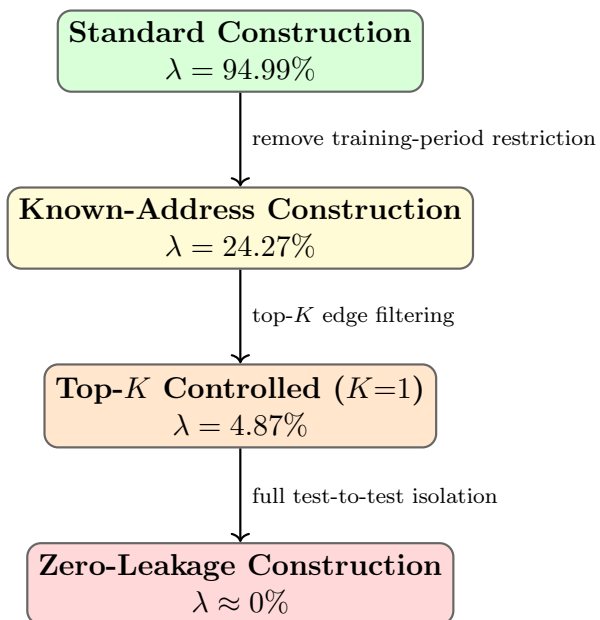

Figure 1: Connectivity spectrum used for leakage-aware evaluation. Test-to-test leakage λ is progressively reduced from 94.99% to near-zero through four graph-construction configurations, enabling quantification of the effect of structural connectivity on GNN performance.